

SIMPLEXITY PERSONAL GUARANTEE

COMMUNICATION

From the very start of working with you, it is our priority to understand what you want from your build as well as keeping you informed every step of the way to ensure your building journey is a good experience. We will meet up and discuss your project so that we can deliver exactly what you are wanting. Throughout your project we will have onsite meetings with you and our site foreman running your job, as your involvement is essential to the individuality of the build. We have a software package that you can access to help with keeping you informed about where the team is at and you can relax knowing everything is operating smoothly.

QUALITY

We employ qualified and highly skilled tradespeople with a wealth of knowledge and experience to lead our teams to give you the assurance you are getting the quality you deserve. We guarantee that only certified builders will be working on your home throughout the build. We have a quality check list used throughout each stage of the build, so nothing is missed, and your home is structurally sound and of the highest quality. We work with a team of reliable and highly skilled subtrades we know and trust to assist in delivering to our highest quality standards, ensuring your project is on time and on budget.

SAFETY

Safety is top priority. A safe worksite for our team and anyone entering it, is essential to us. We are Site Safe and HazardCo members and we ensure safe practices are firm and in place and that everyone adheres to them. Our site foremen are also First Aid trained. Our professional team always keep the site clean and safe.

FOLLOW UP AND MAINTENANCE

We stand by our workmanship and our name. We offer a follow up service post-completion remedying any concerns or issues as well as a complete maintenance schedule, so you know how to take care of your home.

DELIVER WHAT WE SAY WE WILL

We are a family-owned business who value your home like our own, meaning your home is our investment, too. We deliver what we promise. Our team take great pride in delivering the best quality build possible and our work is backed by the most comprehensive cover for residential homes, a Halo 10 Year guarantee.

Cheers,
Jarrod and Vicky
